A renovated 115 m² exterior apartment on Calle de Maldonado, right in the heart of Lista—one of the most established areas in the Salamanca district.

Located on the fourth floor with an elevator in a 1964 building, it comes completely transformed with a contemporary design and a refined selection of materials evident in every finish. One of those homes designed for a family seeking space, light, and a functional layout without sacrificing city-center living. Inside, the property revolves around a social area featuring a living room and a fully equipped open-plan kitchen—a versatile space ideal for both daily living and entertaining. It offers three bedrooms and two full bathrooms, as well as a walk-in closet and an entrance foyer that organizes the arrival into the home. All of this comes complete with heating, split-system air conditioning, and is delivered fully furnished, ready to move into. The Lista neighborhood offers that rare balance between urban luxury and residential tranquility. A short stroll brings you to the Golden Mile on Calle de José Ortega y Gasset, the Mercado de la Paz is just fifteen minutes away, and El Retiro Park is within a twenty-minute walk. Everything is within reach at an easy pace. Priced at...
