Right in the Lista neighborhood, within the Salamanca district, lies this renovated 141 m² exterior apartment on Calle del General Pardiñas, set within a 1920 building that retains the stately character of one of Madrid's most valued areas. Situated on a fifth floor with an elevator, it is a generous, light-filled home designed for those seeking space, elevation, and an established address in prime Madrid without sacrificing residential peace. Thoughtful design is evident in every detail: contemporary lines, carefully chosen materials, and a layout that offers generous proportions for every room. The social area brings together the living room and a fully equipped open-plan kitchen featuring a central island and a striking black marble backsplash. The residence offers three bedrooms and three full bathrooms—all three main bedrooms en-suite, two with walk-in closets, and one with a double vanity—each clad in distinct marbles that lend personality to each space. It is complemented by individual boiler-based heating and air conditioning, and is delivered fully furnished, ready to move into. Living here means having the finest of Madrid just a stroll away. The Golden Mile of Calle de José Ortega y Gasset, with its luxury boutiques and galleries, is minutes away, as is the Mercado de la Paz. El Retiro Park and the airport are both roughly twenty minutes...
