This renovated 288 m² exterior apartment is located on Calle General Pardiñas, in the heart of the Lista neighborhood—one of the most established areas of the Salamanca district.

Situated on the second floor (with elevator) of a classic 1957 building, the property has been completely transformed by Arctempus; the design reinterprets traditional Madrid architecture through a thoroughly modern sensibility. It is the ideal home for a large family seeking space, prestige, and comfort without leaving the city center. The interior impresses with its spaciousness. The social area flows seamlessly across two living rooms, a dining room, and a fully equipped open-plan kitchen. The layout also includes five bedrooms—the master suite featuring a walk-in closet and private bathroom—along with four full bathrooms, a guest toilet, and a laundry room. The property comes fully furnished and move-in ready, featuring a terrace, ducted climate control, home automation, a storage unit, a parking space, and full accessibility. The Lista neighborhood strikes a rare balance between urban luxury and residential tranquility. You are just steps away from the "Golden Mile" on Serrano Street, a fifteen-minute walk from the Mercado de la Paz,...
