Located in the heart of the Lista neighborhood within the Salamanca district, this renovated 65 m² apartment sits on Calle Padilla, housed in a 1940s building that retains the area's classic character. Situated on the first floor—accessible via both a main elevator and a service lift—this home is designed for those looking to move into a fresh, modern space in one of Madrid's most established neighborhoods, offering immediate access to amenities and excellent connections to the rest of the city. Thoughtful design is evident in every detail: high-quality materials, contemporary finishes, and a layout that maximizes every square meter. The living area features an open-plan design combining the lounge and a fully equipped kitchen, complete with marble countertops and gold-toned fixtures. The property also includes two bedrooms and two full bathrooms; the master suite boasts a walk-in closet and a private, marble-clad bathroom. It is equipped with independent heating and air conditioning and comes fully furnished, ready for immediate occupancy. Living here means having the best of Madrid right on your doorstep. The "Golden Mile" of Ortega y Gasset—with its boutiques and galleries—is just minutes away, as is the Mercado de la Paz. Both Retiro Park and the airport are a mere twenty minutes away, situated in a neighborhood that perfectly balances...
