In the capital's central district, we present a spectacular 120m2 completely exterior home.

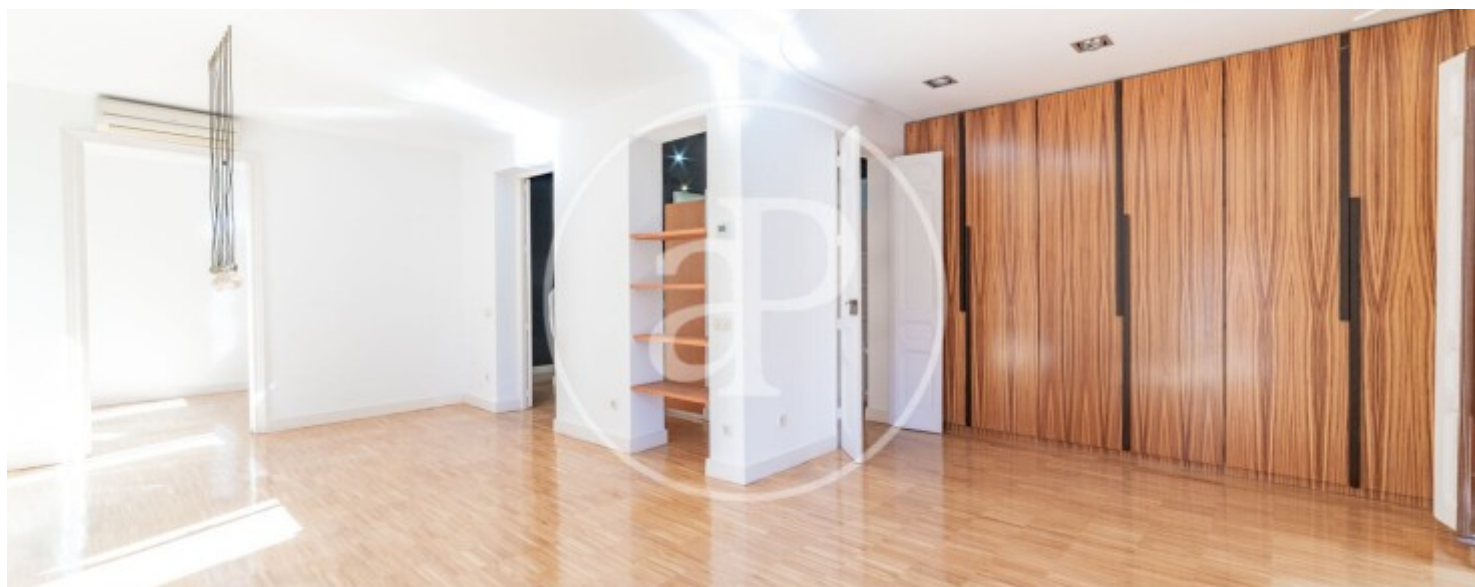

Conde Duque is one of Madrid's most desirable neighborhoods, with its own unique personality where the traditional and the avant-garde converge. It is known as a cultural epicenter, for its plazas and its venues for emerging artists that coexist with traditional taverns. The home is located in a classic building with an elevator on Calle Palma, just a few meters from Plaza España. Renovated, it boasts a completely open-plan construction, with open spaces and high ceilings. This home stands out for its spaciousness and luminosity, thanks to its eight balconies overlooking the street, which provide the space with exceptional natural light. The home consists of two bedrooms, both of very good size, that share a bathroom. The bathroom has a shower and bathtub. The living-dining room is the main room of this house, with a unique style, an industrial feel with simple touches. It features a large front with built-in wardrobes in a wood finish. Fully furnished kitchen equipped with high-end appliances and an industrial-style gas stove. Armored main door. The home is rented unfurnished and features split-level air conditioning and individual heating. A...
