In a tree-lined street in the attractive neighbourhood of Malasaña, we find this beautiful exterior flat, bright, sunny and completely refurbished, brand new, with a charming interior design.

The refurbishment, currently underway, includes a spacious living-dining room with three balconies to the front, independent kitchen, two bedrooms with their respective en-suite bathrooms and an additional bathroom. The published images are indicative (of a flat with similar characteristics), as the work will be finished by May. The property has a lift and storage room on the top floor. This is a unique opportunity, either to live in or to rent out, with a very high potential for profitability, given its location in a good building, the quality of the refurbishment and the strategic location in one of the best areas of the vibrant neighbourhood of Malasaña. Malasaña, one of Madrid's most emblematic neighbourhoods, is known for its exciting cultural life and alternative spirit. Located in the Centro district, close to the Gran Vía and the Chueca neighbourhood, Malasaña is a melting pot of creativity and diversity that reflects the unique character of the city. This neighbourhood is noted for its bohemian atmosphere and rich...
