Located on the first floor, with elevator, of a beautiful building located in a privileged setting in the famous Dos de Mayo square in the Malsaña district.

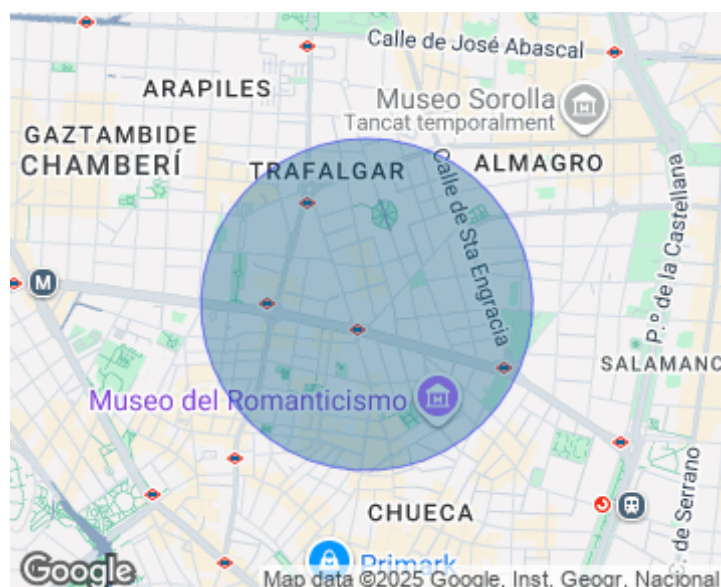

This exquisite residence has been completely renovated using the highest quality materials and careful design, and is presented as seen in the photographs with superb interior design, included in the price of the property. It has three magnificent bedrooms, two of which are double, with the master bedroom having an en-suite bathroom and a large dressing room. It is exterior with wonderful natural light thanks to a floor-to-ceiling balcony. The magnificent living area has a spacious living room with two balconies overlooking the street and a fantastic fully equipped kitchen with high-end appliances and a dining area. The area is complemented by a wonderful guest bathroom. To complete the everyday comfort, the property has a storage room. The area couldn't be more ideal: Malasaña is famous for its bohemian atmosphere and cultural offerings, with bars, restaurants, designer shops, art galleries, and a diverse range of leisure activities. Its young and modern atmosphere will allow you to enjoy urban life to the fullest, without losing the essence of Madrid's more traditional...
