Located in the vibrant Malasaña neighborhood, in the heart of Madrid, this apartment represents a unique opportunity to enjoy a dynamic, urban lifestyle full of personality. The area is known for its alternative and creative character, with a wide range of cultural, gastronomic, and commercial offerings. It features a large double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom and dressing area. In addition, there is a second single bedroom and an extra bathroom. One of its greatest attractions is its living area, divided into two distinct spaces that bring dynamism and personality to the apartment. On one side, there is a fully equipped designer kitchen with a carefully curated aesthetic and a pleasant dining area, perfect for everyday use or entertaining guests. The second living area leads to a welcoming living room, furnished with quality furniture, a relaxation area, and a television space. This space is designed for comfort, maintaining its independence while remaining connected to the rest of the apartment. Brightness is another of its strong points, with excellent natural light that enhances each room and amplifies the feeling of spaciousness and warmth. The apartment is located in a...
