In the street that gives its name to the most alternative neighborhood of the capital, in its quietest section, next to Fuencarral, we find a bright second floor exterior completely renovated.

The social area is distributed in a large kitchen designed to measure and fully equipped, with dining room, separate living room with balconies overlooking the street and a bathroom that serves as a toilet. The private area is distributed in three double bedrooms, two of them with en suite bathroom. The property is located in a beautiful estate of 1905 and its interior design has respected original elements of its architecture, creating cozy and functional spaces with charm. An exceptional opportunity to invest in an elegant home perfectly located in the center of Madrid. Can you imagine living here?
