aProperties presents a beautiful, newly renovated apartment on Calle Raimundo Fernández de Villaverde.

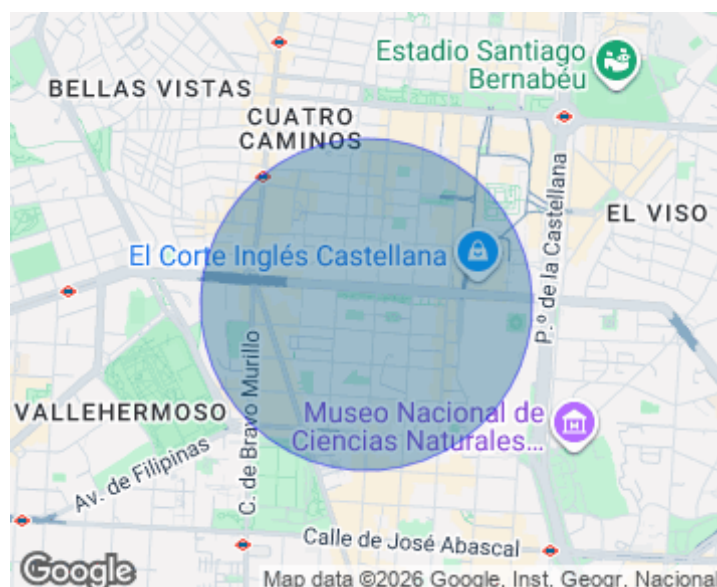

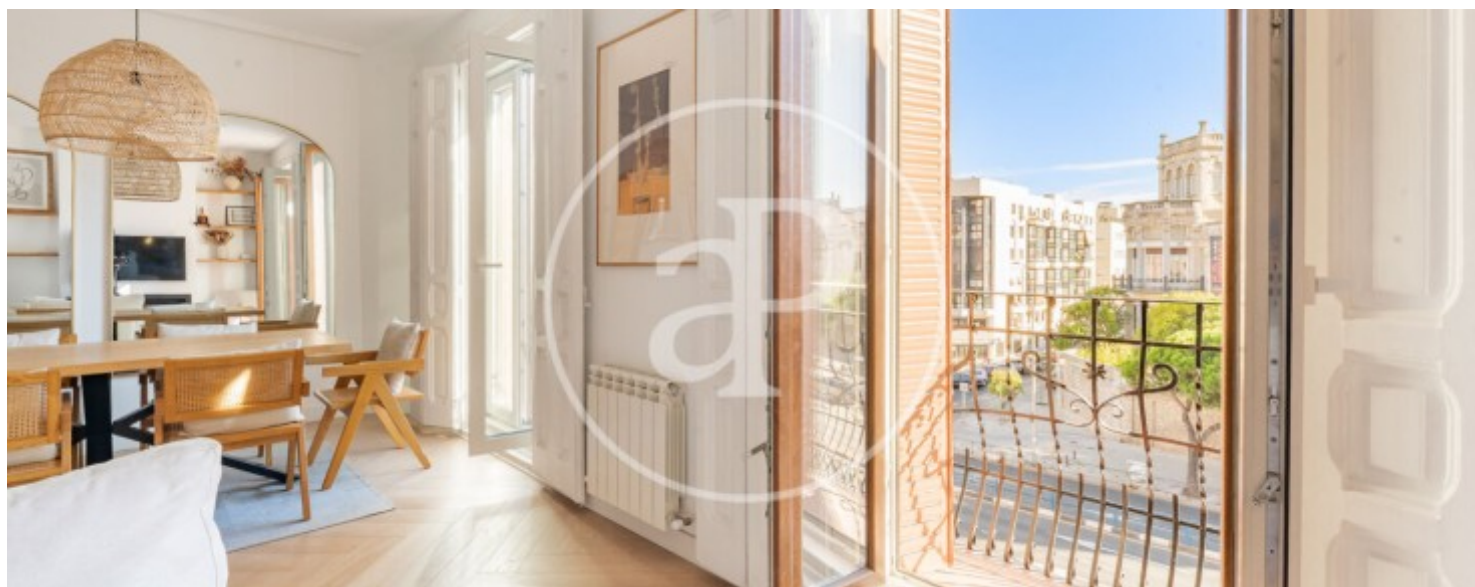

It is a south-facing exterior third floor with a built area of 83 m² according to the cadastre and excellent natural light. The daytime area features a spacious living-dining room with two balconies featuring floor-to-ceiling windows and lovely views. It stands out for its distinct yet seamlessly integrated ambiances, including a living area, dining space, and a large kitchen equipped with high-end appliances, as well as an additional area that can be used as a home office or even an extra bedroom. The sleeping quarters consist of two bedrooms and two full bathrooms, one of them en suite. Notable is the quality of the tasteful renovation completed one year ago. The apartment features individual heating and split-system air conditioning in the living room. The bedrooms include built-in wardrobes and ceiling fans. This is a fantastic opportunity either as an investment or as a primary residence in one of Madrid's most sought-after areas. A viewing is highly recommended!
