aProperties presents this spacious and bright 105 m² residence in Pacífico, a property distinguished by its generous room proportions, southwest orientation, and, above all, the versatility of its layout. Situated on the second floor of a 1979 building, the home pairs a strategic address within the Retiro district with features that are increasingly rare to find together in the area: an exterior-facing living room, three well-sized bedrooms (two of them en suite), an on-site garage parking space in the building, and concierge service. Upon entering the property, the daytime living area centers around an expansive exterior living room with southwest orientation—a space filled with wonderful natural daylight and ample dimensions to comfortably delineate separate lounge and dining areas. The kitchen, originally independent and currently configured as an open-concept space, comes fully fitted and equipped. The apartment's layout also lends itself to reconfiguration, offering an excellent foundation for anyone looking to tailor the home to their specific lifestyle. The sleeping quarters comprise three generously sized bedrooms. The primary suite is one of the home's standout highlights: exterior-facing, spacious, and bright, featuring built-in wardrobes and an en-suite bathroom to create a private haven with a notable sense of spaciousness. The remaining two bedrooms...
