Discover this house located on the top floor, recently renovated with a current and practical approach.

It is a house with very good light input, where the distribution has been thought to make the most of space and natural lighting. The renovation incorporates careful materials, more open spaces and modern carpentry, creating a balanced and functional set. From the living room and bedrooms you can enjoy unobstructed views of the garden of Elisa Serna, a green environment that brings tranquility to everyday life. Thanks to its orientation, its height and the reform carried out, the house offers comfort and a level of quality that differentiates it in the area. It is suitable both for those looking for a well-defined property in location, light and comfort. Can you imagine living here?
