In the Pacífico neighborhood, one of the most consolidated and projected areas of Madrid, is this very bright interior floor, located on the first floor of a classic building with elevator.

This is a newly renovated house, ready to move in or to obtain high profitability. With a surface of 51 m 2, the house has an optimized distribution, having four bedrooms and two full bathrooms, a configuration very demanded for both investment and habitual housing. The renovation has been designed to take advantage of every square meter, combining functionality and a contemporary style. The high ceilings and the entrance of natural light give a feeling of spaciousness and comfort. Pacific is a booming neighbourhood which in recent years has been the subject of numerous urban improvement projects aimed at modernizing its environment, improving accessibility and the quality of life of its residents, thus reinforcing its present and future attractiveness. The location is excellent: a few minutes from the Retiro Park, with excellent communications by metro and suburban, and surrounded by shops, schools, restaurants and all the necessary services for day to day. A very interesting opportunity in an area with high demand and travel, ideal for those looking for...
