In the Palacio area, right in the heart of Madrid Centro, we find this spacious exterior property of 129 m² built area, very bright, with four balconies facing the street, a circular layout, and multiple renovation possibilities. The property retains the spaciousness and character of traditional central Madrid homes, featuring generous rooms and a layout that allows for comfortable movement throughout the house and easy adaptation to different lifestyles. It currently offers three bedrooms, a living room, a sitting room, two large bathrooms, and a spacious independent kitchen. The sitting room currently functions as an independent space and offers, thanks to its size and location, various possibilities within a renovation project: it can be kept as a separate room, repurposed for another use, or integrated with the living room to expand the daytime living area. The four street-facing balconies are one of the home's greatest attractions. Along with its exterior position, they provide abundant natural light and lend the home a distinctive personality, as well as allowing one to take in the neighborhood atmosphere from inside. The independent, generously sized kitchen has access to a utility/drying terrace, a highly practical space for everyday living. The property also features a small pantry, adding functionality to the layout. The home requires renovation, offering the opportunity...
