Very close to Puerta de Toledo and Mercado de la Cebada, we find this comfortable and convenient 60-square-meter interior apartment, fully furnished and equipped, located in a building typical of traditional Madrid architecture. It features a spacious living-dining room, kitchen, two double bedrooms, and a bathroom. La Latina is a multicultural neighborhood, surrounded by cafes, bars, theaters, and restaurants, and just steps from Plaza Mayor, the Royal Palace, Almudena Cathedral, and other tourist attractions. It is known for its iconic tapas streets like Cava Baja and the popular Sunday flea market, El Rastro. This corner of the city is highly sought after by international students, remote workers, executives, couples, and families who enjoy experiencing the heart of the city. Can you imagine living
