With spectacular views of the Palacio de Oriente from which one can enjoy one of the most beautiful sunsets of Madrid, this house is located in a very quiet estate but very close to the most important leisure and tourism areas of the capital . Located in a stately building and with an area of 130sqm is distributed in a spacious entrance hall that separates the day area from the night. Before accessing the main living area there is an area with a fireplace that serves as an anteroom to the spacious living room with fireplace and three large windows with unbeatable views. On the other hand, it has independent kitchen and laundry. The house has three bedrooms and two bathrooms, one of them in suite. It stands out for the numerous built-in cabinets in the different pieces. Finally, it has concierge service, air conditioning, elevator and the option of renting a large parking space in the same building.
