aProperties presents this magnificent 165 m² residence located on iconic Calle Arenal, right in the heart of Madrid.

A property that combines the architectural character of a classic building with a comprehensive designer renovation, where space, brightness, and high-end finishes define a new way to enjoy the city center. The home stands out for its carefully considered layout and generous proportions. Its exterior nature is highlighted by three street-facing balconies that connect the residence with its urban surroundings while bringing distinct character to the rooms. The daytime area revolves around a spacious open-concept living-dining room connected to a designer kitchen equipped with high-end appliances. A space conceived for both daily living and entertaining, where contemporary aesthetics and functionality coexist effortlessly. The private sleeping quarters offer three bedrooms designed for maximum comfort and privacy. Custom carpentry optimizes the space and maintains a refined aesthetic consistent with the rest of the design project. The home also features two full bathrooms and a guest powder room (aseo), with premium finishes and a design that reflects the overall elegance and sophistication of the property. The property is...
