This is the kind of property you buy for the potential it offers.

It is a classic, family-sized apartment located on the first floor, facing the exterior. It features high ceilings and a generous layout, though it requires a full-scale renovation to tailor it to the lifestyle of its next owner. The Property You enter into a spacious foyer that leads to the service area, which includes a large kitchen with an adjoining toilet, a covered laundry/drying area, and a bedroom. Beyond this lies the living-dining room, which faces the main street—the wide, tree-lined Calle Ferrocarril—and features a private terrace where you can step out for some fresh air amidst the treetops. The high ceilings make every room feel expansive, offering great flexibility when planning a renovation. The apartment has four bedrooms. Two are exterior-facing, overlooking the same street as the living room; one of these even has its own private terrace. The other two are interior-facing and quiet—ideal for use as children's rooms, a home office, or a guest room. The main bathroom is a full, spacious suite. The kitchen is separate and includes space for a casual dining area, as well as a toilet that could easily be converted into a second full bathroom. The...
