This spacious apartment of 177 m² built area, according to the cadastre, is located on Calle Buitrago del Lozoya in Peñagrande, within the Fuencarral-El Pardo district of Madrid.

Situated within a private residential complex built in 2009, the residence stands out for its excellent state of preservation, fully exterior layout, and extraordinary natural daylight. An exceptionally compelling choice for those seeking generous space, comfort, and premium residential amenities in Madrid. The home features an expansive living-dining room, an independent kitchen, a dedicated laundry room, three bedrooms, two full bathrooms, and a powder room, with the primary bedroom designed en suite. Its floor plan provides comfortable, functional spaces, while its entirely exterior orientation ensures abundant natural light and a pleasant sense of openness throughout. The impeccable condition allows the next owner to enjoy the property from day one. The gated community offers a complete residential lifestyle, featuring landscaped green areas, two swimming pools—one indoor and one outdoor—and a gym. A 24/7 on-site concierge and security service provides added comfort and peace of mind. Designed for families and buyers who value generous proportions,...
