This spacious 177 m² apartment is located on Calle Buitrago de Lozoya, in Valdezarza, within the Fuencarral-El Pardo district, Madrid.

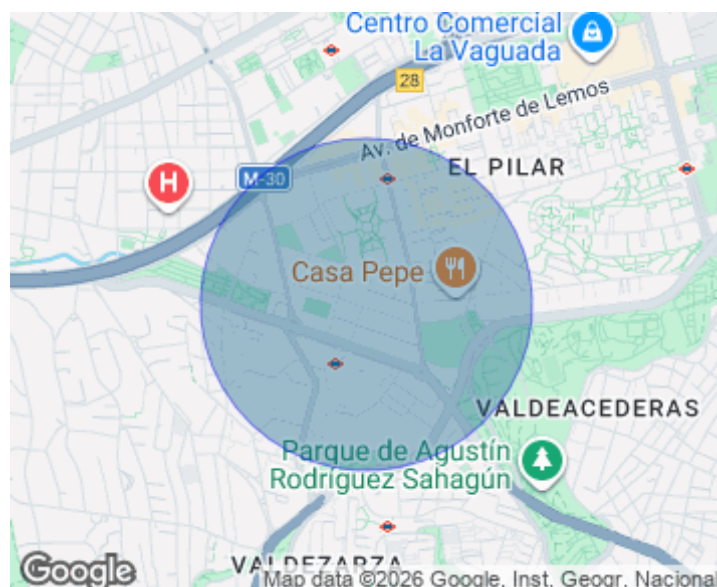

Situated in a private development built in 2009, the property stands out for its excellent state of preservation, its completely exterior-facing character, and extraordinary natural light. An especially attractive option for those seeking spaciousness, comfort, and residential amenities in Madrid. The residence features a large living-dining room, separate kitchen, laundry room, three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a guest powder room, with the master bedroom being en suite. Its layout provides comfortable and functional spaces, while being fully exterior ensures abundant natural light and an inviting feeling of openness. The excellent condition of the home allows you to enjoy it from day one. The community offers a comprehensive residential environment, complete with landscaped grounds, two swimming pools—one indoor and one outdoor—and a gym. The 24/7 concierge service brings added convenience and peace of mind to everyday life. A home designed for families or anyone who values generous spaces, privacy, and high-quality communal facilities without sacrificing urban living. It includes one parking space...
