We present this unique property located on the ninth floor of Torres Blancas, one of Madrid's most iconic and recognizable residential buildings, situated on Avenida de América.

Its height and privileged position provide the home with spectacular open views over the city and exceptional luminosity, turning every room into a magnificent viewpoint over Madrid. The apartment features two bedrooms and two bathrooms, an independent kitchen, and a spacious living area divided into a living room, dining room, and sitting area. Its different spaces enjoy impressive views of the city, one of the property's greatest attractions. The apartment is in good condition, although it offers extraordinary renovation potential: a comprehensive update would allow for a reinterpretation of its spaces to create a truly exclusive home, combining contemporary design with the unique character of one of the capital's greatest architectural icons. The property also includes a storage room. Torres Blancas was designed in 1961 by the prestigious architect Francisco Javier Sáenz de Oiza and built during the 1960s. Considered a masterpiece of Spanish organic architecture, its design broke away from traditional residential building patterns of the era. Sáenz de...
