On Calle Mauro at the intersection with Alustante, in the heart of Prosperidad neighborhood, is this large renovated 136 m2 apartment built according to the land register, located on a first floor exterior with elevator. The house has been completely renovated with high quality materials, betting on a comfortable and contemporary layout where light, space and functionality coexist naturally. A particularly attractive property for families looking for real space in Madrid or for those who want to invest in a consolidated area with high residential demand. The house has four bedrooms and two full bathrooms, one of them en suite in the master bedroom. The large living room with integrated kitchen becomes the real heart of the house: an open space, bright and versatile where the central island favors both everyday life and gatherings with friends or family. In addition, it has built-in wardrobes, air conditioning, gas central heating and current finishes that allow to live from the first day without the need for additional renovations. Prosperidad is one of those Madrid neighborhoods that perfectly combine residential life and urban connection. Surrounded by shops, schools, supermarkets, restaurants and excellent communications, it offers a practical and balanced way of life, especially valued by those who want daily comfort without giving up the dynamism of the city. The property includes a...
