In the consolidated neighborhood of Prosperidad, within the district of Chamartín in Madrid, is this exterior floor of approximately 94 m², located on a fourth floor of a residential building.

Currently, to be renovated, it represents an excellent opportunity to design a tailor-made home in one of the most practical and well connected areas of the city. Ideal for those looking to customize their home or invest with long-term vision. The property offers a planned layout of two bedrooms and two bathrooms, designed to optimize space, natural light and daily comfort. There is the possibility of purchasing it already renovated for €760,000, following the project defined in plan, which allows you to visualize a contemporary, functional and coherent result in all its rooms or reform it independently. Prosperity combines the character of a neighborhood with the proximity to the dynamism of Chamartín. Surrounded by shops, restaurants and services, and with excellent transport links, it is an especially attractive location for professionals, couples or investors who value comfort without sacrificing a good quality of life. A property with great potential that allows you to choose between renovating it to your liking or receiving it ready...
