Spectacular and exclusive loft of 450sqm located in one of the quietest residential areas of Madrid.

The property is very original and with exclusive design, walls and floors of polished cement combined with a decoration that defines without doubt the style and personal character of the property. It has a garden of 200sqm with artificial grass and terrace. The ceilings are very high and in some areas glazed, which brings great luminosity to the house. We access through a wide entrance that gives way to a spectacular hall. It has four bedrooms and four bathrooms. The master suite, very large has a custom dressing. There is a second bedroom also en suite. The property has also a child's bedroom and study-studio bedroom. It also has a large and original office. The property has high quality materials like heating and hot water by natural gas and by radiant wire through the ground. This spectacular loft has two parking spaces.
