On the third floor of a classic building in the prestigious Recoletos neighborhood, on Claudio Coello Street, lies this elegant 177 m² apartment, situated in one of the most exclusive enclaves of the Salamanca district. The property combines the character of classic Madrid architecture, where design, quality, and comfort are carefully balanced. Its four exterior openings provide remarkable light and a great sense of spaciousness. The day area is designed to enjoy spaces with comfort and ease; the living room surprises with its spaciousness and luminosity, featuring a charming library nook. The kitchen offers a large island and high-end appliances, while the home also incorporates a practical laundry area. The layout is completed with three spacious bedrooms, two full bathrooms, and an attractive guest toilet. The master suite offers an exceptionally comfortable and private retreat, accompanied by a superb walk-in closet. The building features a concierge service. Living in Recoletos means enjoying one of Madrid's most representative areas, surrounded by restaurants, boutiques, galleries, culture, and services, with El Retiro Park and the main streets of the Salamanca district within easy walking distance. It is a home designed for those seeking a spacious and sophisticated residence, with classic personality and every convenience for contemporary urban living.
