Exceptional apartment in a stately building dating back to 1900, boasting a beautiful classic façade, elegant entrance, and lovely common areas.

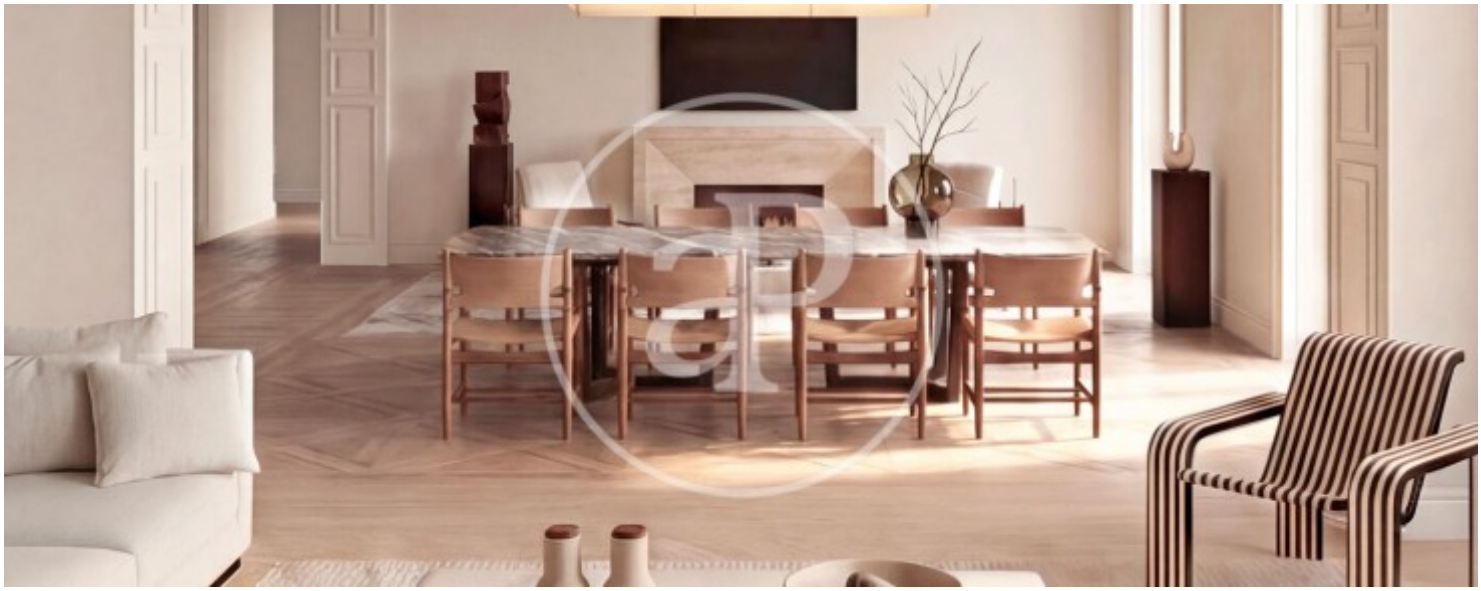

Located in the exclusive Recoletos neighborhood of Salamanca, just minutes from Retiro Park, and surrounded by shops, restaurants, boutiques, and all amenities, this apartment is characterized by its eight windows facing the street, five corner balconies, and three-meter-high ceilings. Currently in need of renovation, the property offers the potential for an optimal layout with three or four spacious en-suite bedrooms, a guest bathroom, a staff bedroom, a laundry room, and a generous living area with large balconies that flood the apartment with natural light and make the views a true focal point. A unique property in an unparalleled location, with views that few apartments in Madrid can offer. A perfect canvas for creating a truly exceptional residence. The property includes a practical storage room, and the building has a concierge service. Can you imagine living here?
