On distinguished Calle Recoletos, nestled in the heart of the Recoletos neighborhood, lies one of the most select and sophisticated residential enclaves in Madrid, just steps from the lush greenery of El Retiro Park and the iconic Paseo de la Castellana. Situated on the fifth and top floor of a classic building, this 63 m² built apartment stands out for its unique character. Its interior-facing position on the building's highest level endows it with an atmosphere of absolute serenity and wonderful natural light pouring into every room, completely insulating it from the urban pulse of the capital. The property is currently undergoing a meticulous, comprehensive renovation project and will be delivered fully furnished and turnkey ready. The space is laid out into a comfortable double bedroom with a built-in wardrobe and a sophisticated full bathroom. The social area comprises a welcoming living room with an integrated open-plan kitchen, delivered fully equipped with all appliances. Every corner has been conceived to enhance warmth and spatial flow, making it an ideal choice both for an exclusive residence in the capital and as a high-yield investment backed by enduring demand in this prime location. The layout avoids superfluous elements to elevate the seamless flow between the living room and kitchen, achieving an atmosphere that is harmonious, warm, and exceptionally comfortable. Given...
