With high ceilings and two exterior balconies, the house retains its traditional architectural character and offers an excellent base for creating a custom home in a prime city center location. Currently to be renovated, the apartment has three bedrooms, two bathrooms, independent kitchen and a large living room distributed in two environments. Its current configuration, together with its generous dimensions, allows multiple redistributive possibilities to adapt it to different lifestyles, enhancing the luminosity, spaciousness and functionality of each room. Living in Sol means enjoying Madrid on foot. Theatres, cinemas, restaurants, shops and some of the most emblematic streets of the capital are just a few minutes away. In addition, the excellent public transport connection makes it easy to get anywhere in the city.
