Located right in the Sol neighborhood—the heart of the Centro district—this 68 m² exterior apartment on Calle Barcelona is now for sale.

It is situated in a building dating back to 1880 that retains all the charm of historic Madrid's classic architecture. The property has been fully renovated, blending period character with a contemporary design that gives it a unique personality the moment you step through the door. The interior layout features a cozy living area with a lounge and a fully equipped open-plan kitchen, a bedroom, and a full bathroom with marble finishes and brass accents. A standout feature is the trio of balconies, which flood the home with natural light and provide that lively atmosphere so characteristic of the city center's stately buildings. It also includes ducted climate control and a storage unit, and is sold furnished—ready for you to move in without a worry. Living here means having "Kilometer Zero" right on your doorstep, with Gran Vía, Plaza Mayor, and the Barrio de las Letras just steps away, as well as the Prado Museum and Retiro Park in close proximity. It is a vibrant setting, ideal for those who want to experience the city in its purest form—whether as a character-filled...
