This attic-style penthouse for sale is located in the Sol district, right in the heart of central Madrid, next to Plaza de las Descalzas and within one of the capital's most historic enclaves.

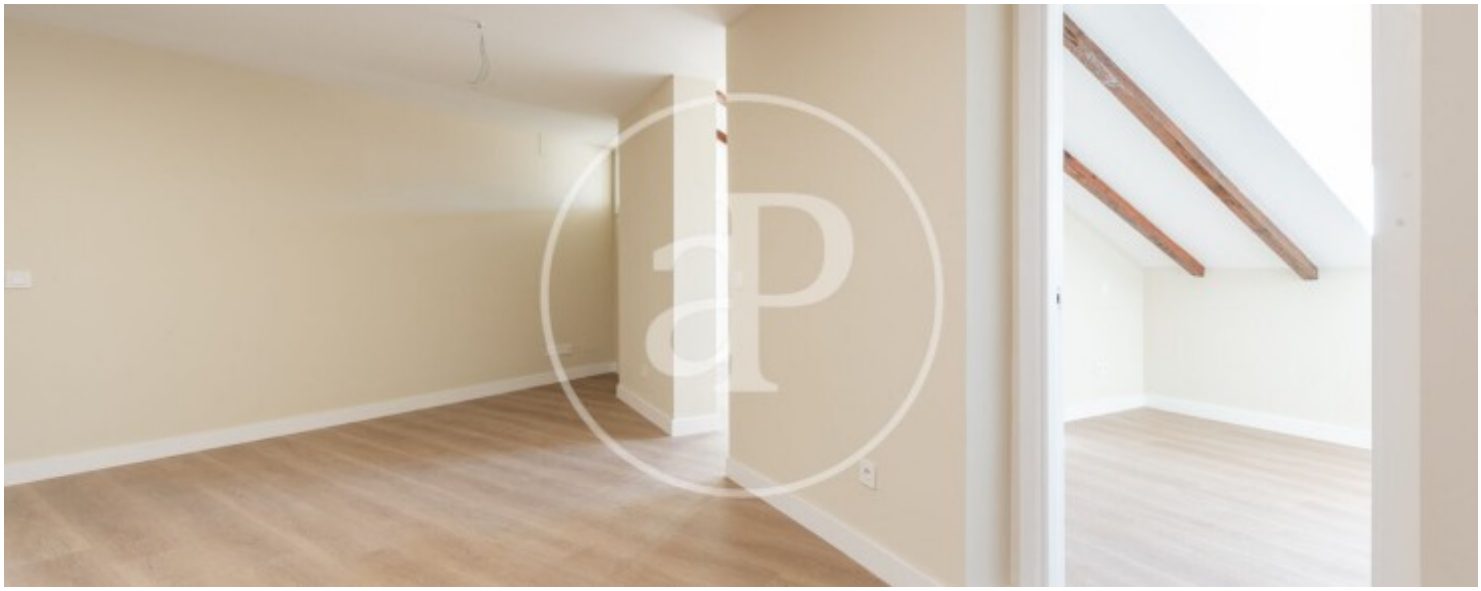

Exterior-facing and newly renovated, it is set within a handsome period building that has undergone a comprehensive restoration, where traditional architecture harmonizes with contemporary comfort and functionality. A compelling opportunity for buyers seeking a character-filled penthouse in the center of Madrid. The residence features an open-concept living room arranged into two distinct environments (with the potential to create a third bedroom), alongside an integrated kitchen that flows naturally into the daytime entertainment area. The private sleeping quarters comprise two bedrooms and two full bathrooms, one of which is en suite. Built-in wardrobes complete a functional, practical layout designed to optimize space and ensure effortless living in the city center. The surrounding neighborhood is one of the standout highlights of this offering. Living adjacent to Plaza de las Descalzas means enjoying historic Madrid at your doorstep, with an extensive selection of dining options, shopping, cultural landmarks, and everyday amenities, complemented by superb...
