aProperties presents this unique 233 m² residence (according to the cadastre), fully renovated and located in the Trafalgar neighborhood of the Chamberí district, within a beautiful classic first-half-of-the-20th-century building featuring an elegant facade and concierge service. This is a property of truly distinctive character, conceived from a singular residential vision where art, architecture, and craftsmanship seamlessly coexist with cutting-edge technology—a home that transcends the traditional concept of living to become a genuine experience for the senses. The property stands out for its magnificent 3.20-meter-high ceilings and a layout that combines generous volume, elegance, and carefully defined living spaces. The social reception area comprises a expansive living-dining room organized into distinct environments, including a large main lounge and two independent dining areas. The home also features a spacious kitchen fully equipped with top-tier appliances from the market's most prestigious brands. The private sleeping quarters follow a meticulously planned layout, featuring a magnificent master suite as the primary bedroom and a spacious guest suite, both complete with private en-suite bathrooms. The residence also includes a guest powder room (aseo). One of the standout aspects of this property is its singular renovation project, which moves away...
