In the exclusive district of Trafalgar, in the district of Chamberí, you will find this charming 58 m2 penthouse, according to a simple note, with a marked Madrid character that combines the charm of traditional architecture with a functional layout, ideal for those seeking a unique home in one of the most attractive and sought-after areas of Madrid. The attic has a bedroom, a full bathroom and a bright living area with kitchen open to the living room, designed to take advantage of each square meter naturally. The vaulted ceilings and exposed wooden beams bring personality and warmth, creating a welcoming and distinctive atmosphere. The open layout favors a pleasant feeling of spaciousness and makes the main area the real heart of the house. Living in Trafalgar means enjoying an urban lifestyle, sophisticated and comfortable. Surrounded by signature cafes, restaurants, local shops and cultural spaces, the neighborhood maintains the residential essence of Chamberí while offering excellent connection to the rest of the city. A particularly attractive location for professionals, couples or those looking for a charming second residence in the center of Madrid. For 620,000 euros, this penthouse represents a unique opportunity to enjoy a home with its own personality in one of the most valued enclaves of the capital, both for living or as an investment.
