In the Vallehermoso neighborhood of Madrid, this exterior apartment of 209 m² built according to the cadastre occupies the third floor of a stately building, with only two residences per floor.

Recently renovated by an architecture and interior design studio specializing in bespoke designer renovations, it combines a quiet residential location with the convenience of city living. Its east-facing terrace and expansive windows bring in delightful natural light throughout the day. The home is arranged around a spacious entrance hall, a guest powder room, and generous built-in wardrobes. The living-dining room opens onto the terrace and connects via white lacquered sliding doors to an eat-in kitchen with ample storage space and integrated, top-brand paneled appliances. The private quarters feature four double bedrooms and three bathrooms, two of which are en suite. A storage room and a garage parking space in the building are included. Living in Vallehermoso allows you to enjoy an established residential atmosphere without giving up central Madrid: Santander Park, Parque del Oeste, and Ciudad Universitaria are all nearby, alongside an extensive retail, cultural, and leisure offering, as well as excellent transport links. It is a home designed especially...
