Great open space that has been renovated as a loft type housing.

The floor has 49 meters in which there is a living area, kitchen, bathroom, laundry room and storage room. It is possible to increase the space to 72 square metres. The location is excellent, halfway between Parque de Santander and metro Guzmán el bueno, in a good estate of 1980. The property is very interesting as an investment, as it has its own access from the street, it could easily be converted into a tourist property. Very interesting residential area surrounded by schools, universities and private hospitals. Can you imagine living here?
