This magnificent semi-detached villa is located in a privileged and quiet location, combining privacy, brightness, and unparalleled views of the park.

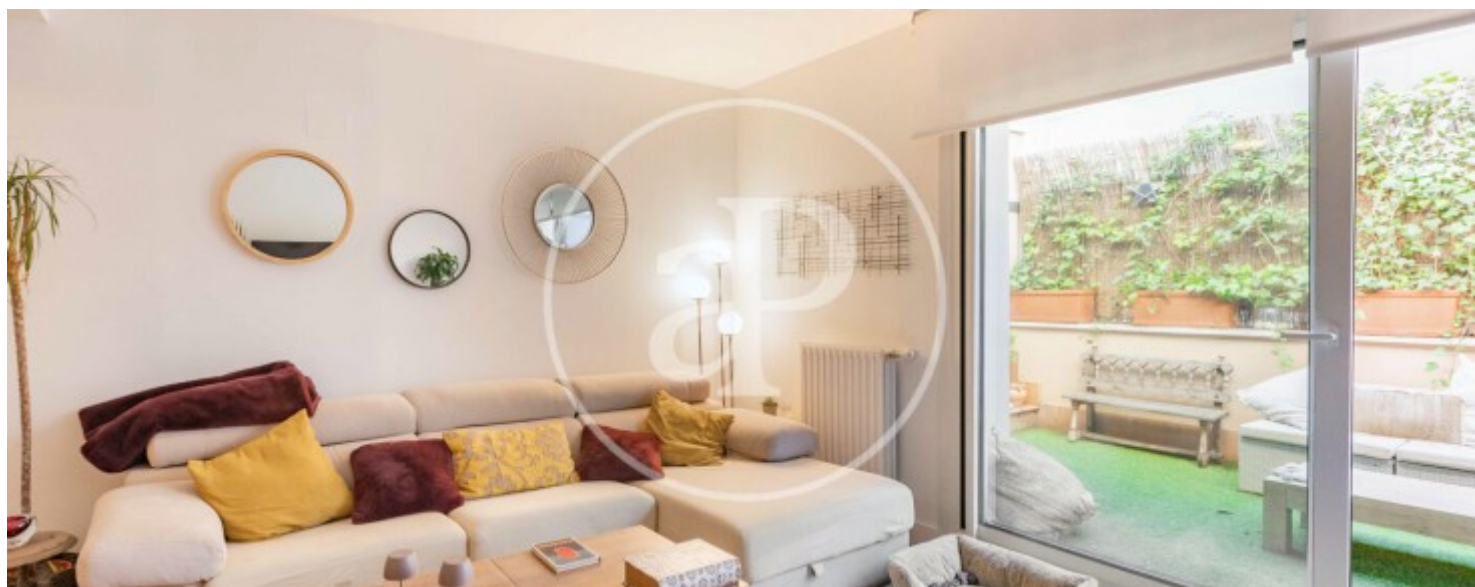

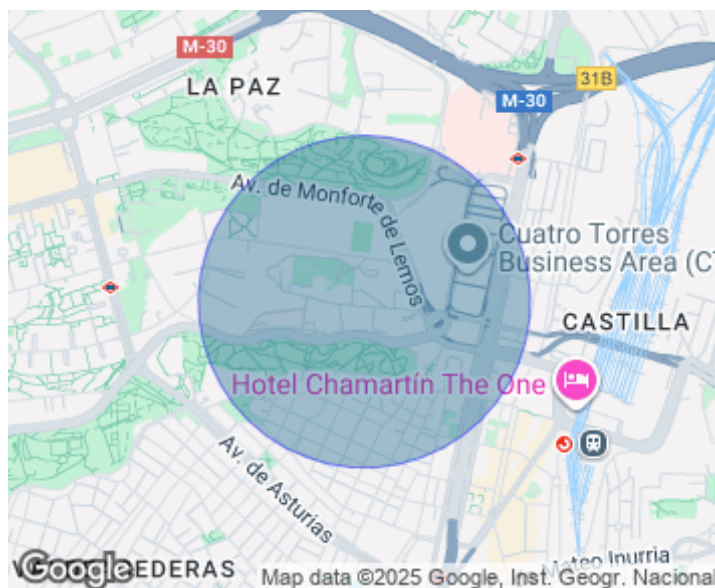

The property, recently renovated, stands out for its careful layout and condition, along with its magnificent upper terrace: a true urban viewpoint from which to enjoy the best views of the natural surroundings and the Madrid skyline, with the Cuatro Torres and Caleido towers as the main attractions. Its elegant, functional design and spacious rooms make it an ideal choice for those seeking comfort, natural light, and unique views. On the main floor, there is a spacious, bright living-dining room with a south-facing orientation and access to a charming terrace of approximately 12m². This outdoor space, full of light and calm, invites you to have breakfast in the sun, read outdoors, or share relaxed dinners surrounded by greenery. Its orientation and continuity with the living room mean that both spaces exude the same warm and cheerful atmosphere. In addition, on this floor there is also a separate kitchen and a guest bathroom. The first floor is the relaxation area, consisting of a comfortable master bedroom with en suite bathroom overlooking the park, a large built-in wardrobe...
