In the heart of Mancor de la Vall, among quiet streets and the striking landscape of the Serra de Tramuntana, lies a unique property that stands out for its strong aesthetic identity and carefully curated architectural sensibility from the very first moment. The home naturally blends the charm of traditional Mallorcan architecture with a contemporary reinterpretation of design, creating serene, intimate spaces deeply connected to natural light and the surrounding environment. Distributed across different levels, the house offers a spatial journey full of nuances, where each room has been conceived as an experience. Noble materials, organic textures and handcrafted details coexist with distinctive elements that elevate its character: doors sourced from Thailand, sculptural furniture and finishes executed with almost obsessive attention to detail. The interior courtyard acts as the heart of the home, bringing freshness and balance, while the upper terrace opens onto the Mediterranean landscape with unobstructed mountain views, enhancing the feeling of openness and calm. The property also features several unique elements that add a highly distinctive and sophisticated character: on the ground floor, a small terrace incorporates a water cascade that creates a relaxing and immersive atmosphere, while the house also surprises with an independent sauna, along with designer furniture,...
