In the center of Montcada i Reixac, just a few steps from shops, schools, restaurants, and public transport, you will find this exclusive detached house of 209 sq m built, distributed over four floors.

A property that combines spaciousness, privacy, and a layout designed for daily life, ideal for families looking for space without giving up the convenience of living in a central and perfectly connected location. The main floor hosts a spacious living-dining room with a fireplace and direct access to a pleasant terrace—a perfect space to share moments at any time of the year. The eat-in kitchen, also with outdoor access, provides functionality and comfort. In the rest area, we find four bedrooms, including a master suite with a private bathroom, as well as another full bathroom. The upper floor surprises with a bright, wood-paneled attic, a versatile space that can be turned into a home office, reading room, studio, or play area. On the lower floor, a large garage with capacity for two or three vehicles, a cellar, and a storage room complete a home prepared to meet every need. Living in the center of Montcada i Reixac means enjoying all services at your doorstep and an excellent connection to Barcelona, combining the peace of mind of an...
