A rare architectural opportunity with panoramic vision.

Set in the heart of the authentic village of Montuïri, this large property requires a complete renovation and is sold with an architectural project that redefines it as an exceptional luxury residence. From its future terrace, the home is designed to enjoy 360° open views reaching the Serra de Tramuntana, offering a privileged sense of space and connection to Mallorca's landscape. Planned on a 275 m² plot with a projected total built area of approximately 378 m², the design unfolds across three levels and envisions five rooms, including three bedrooms and three bathrooms, a guest toilet, terrace, and private garage. The ground floor is conceived with an elegant entrance hall leading into a spacious, light-filled living and dining area with an open-plan kitchen, oriented toward a peaceful interior patio. The lower level is designed to benefit from generous natural light through large windows and will feature two en-suite bedrooms alongside a refined TV lounge. The first floor is entirely dedicated to an impressive master suite of approximately 83 m², complete with dressing room, en-suite bathroom, and direct access to a generous terrace with a 17 m² private pool,...
