Nestled in the stunning Garraf Natural Park, strategically located between the inland area of Castelldefels and Sitges and just a few minutes from the renowned Buddhist monastery of Palau Novella, this magnificent historic masia stands out for its exceptional character. The property preserves beautiful original features from its period while having been fully renovated and maintained in impeccable condition. Surrounded by nature, the masia offers nine magnificent en-suite double bedrooms, each with its own unique charm. All rooms are different and have been carefully decorated with great attention to detail. The property features a spacious, fully equipped kitchen with pantry, ample storage space, and a large dining office area. Adjacent to the kitchen is the main dining room, which connects to several living rooms with fireplaces and direct access to the garden, where a beautiful covered porch invites relaxation and outdoor living. On the main floor, there is also a large multi-purpose room with direct access to the garden, ideal for hosting various activities or adaptable uses. This exceptional masia offers countless possibilities, whether as a private family residence, a business opportunity, or even the option to divide it into three independent units to maximize profitability. Do not hesitate to request a viewing and immerse yourself in the natural beauty of the Garraf while...
