Price
625,000 €

Located on Isidoro Antillón Street, next to the iconic Aragón Street, this 209 m² penthouse is for sale for €625,000.

The property stands out for its generous proportions, large private terrace and distinctive layout. Originally consisting of two independent apartments that were joined together, it offers the possibility of exploring whether they could be divided back into two separate apartments, subject to the relevant technical and planning feasibility. This is a particularly interesting opportunity for buyers seeking a spacious property to renovate or a home with several potential layout options. The current layout comprises six bedrooms, three bathrooms and a guest toilet, as well as a main bedroom area with a dressing room and en-suite bathroom. Its generous dimensions allow for different configurations and the creation of spaces tailored to the needs of each project. A full renovation provides the opportunity to modernise the property and make the most of its potential, whether to create a substantial private residence or to explore alternative layouts. One of the penthouse's main highlights is its exceptionally large private terrace, an outdoor space offering numerous possibilities for creating an al fresco dining...
