With an unbeatable location, right in the heart of Plaza Madrid, just five minutes from the old town and the city centre, this dynamic neighbourhood offers all kinds of services and shops within easy reach. We present you with a spectacular sixth designer flat, where light and sunshine are the protagonists thanks to its large number of large windows and its east-west orientation. This property has undergone an integral refurbishment of the highest quality, using the best standards in materials and finishes. Every detail has been carefully thought out, from the home automation system and the soundproofing of the walls, to the natural wood floors and the Santanyí stone on the walls of the living room and kitchen. It has two exterior double bedrooms, both with large built-in wardrobes, fully equipped and with LED lighting. The master bedroom includes an en suite bathroom of modern design with natural stone and access to a private terrace. A second bathroom with the same features, located next to the other bedroom, offers additional convenience as a guest bathroom. The spacious living-dining room with access to two terraces, featuring the main wall lined with natural stone from Marés de Santanyi, integrates an ethanol fireplace and a large TV screen, creating a cosy and elegant ambience. The modern, well-designed Porcelanosa kitchen is equipped with a...
