In the historic neighborhood of El Terreno, we find this 82 m² apartment with a spacious 62 m² terrace.

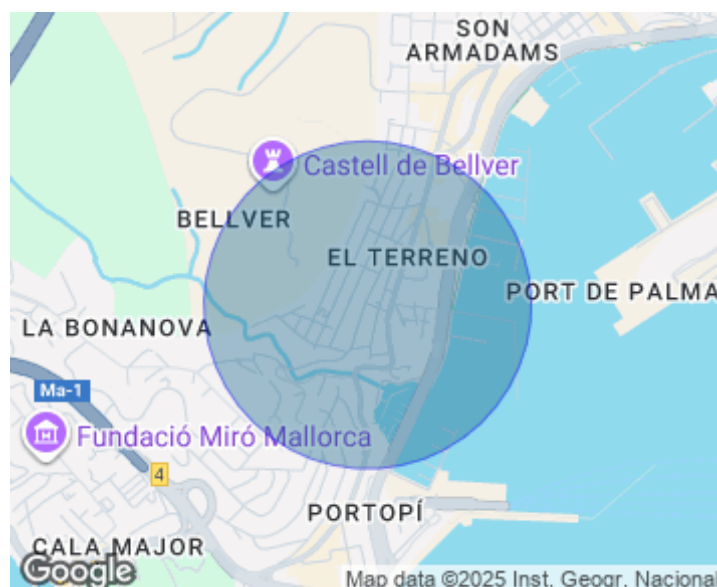

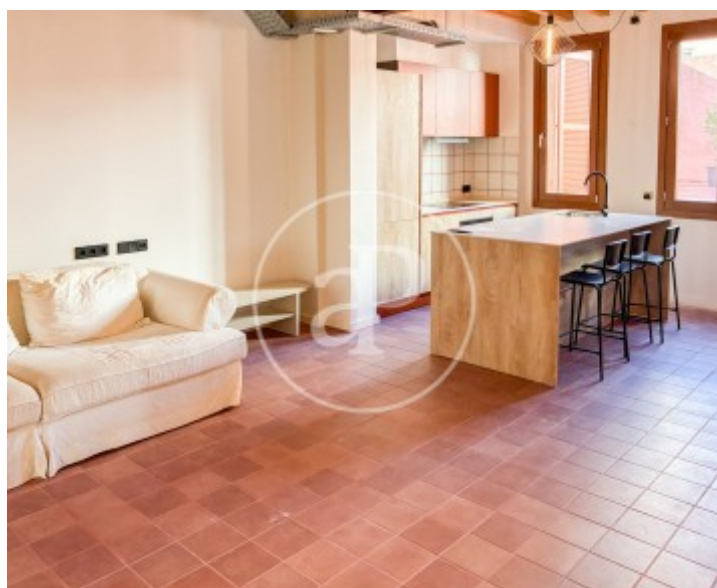

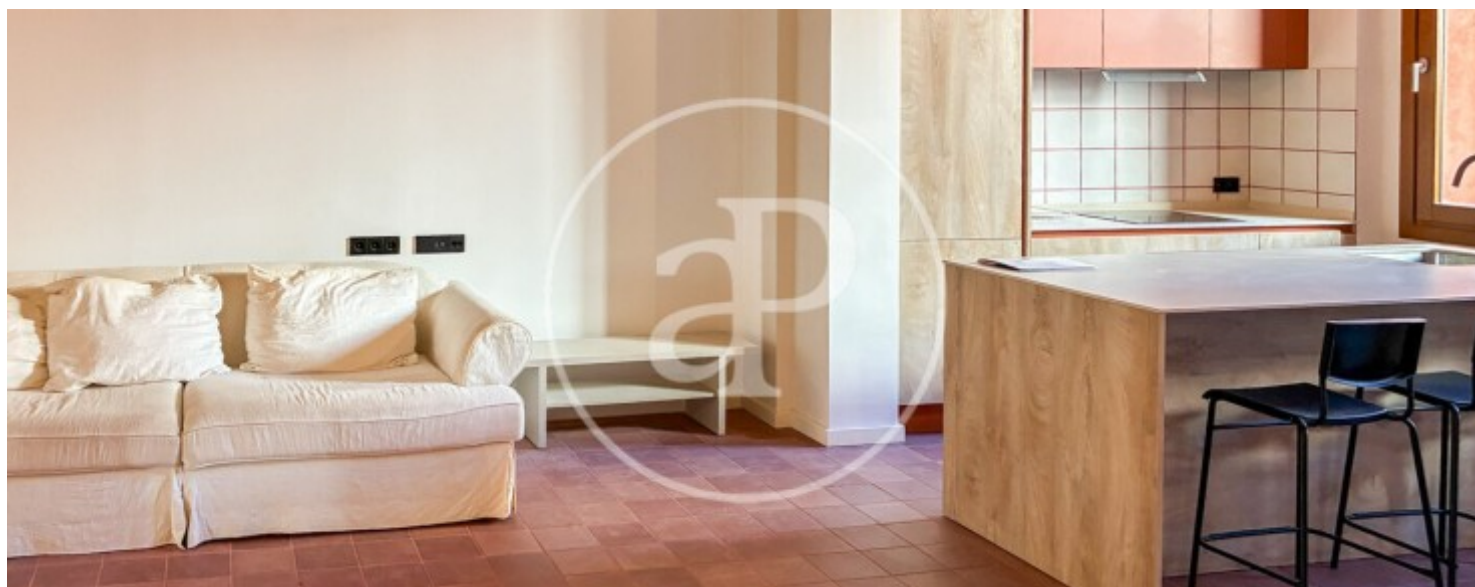

The project has been designed by the renowned architecture studios MVRDV from the Netherlands and GRAS from Mallorca. The property is located next to the iconic Plaza Gomila, within a recently built residential complex that combines contemporary design with traditional elements of Mallorcan architecture. The apartment stands out for its generous central loft-style space, where the living room, dining area, and open-plan kitchen seamlessly coexist. High ceilings with exposed wooden beams, decorative lighting, and reddish clay floors create a warm and Mediterranean atmosphere. The fully equipped kitchen is arranged around a large central island, perfect for cooking, having breakfast, or entertaining guests. From this area, large windows allow abundant natural light and offer unobstructed views towards the outdoor space of the apartment. There is also a separate laundry area. The night area features two double bedrooms, both with en-suite bathrooms with walk-in showers and direct access to private balconies through wooden doors with floor-to-ceiling windows, providing brightness and a special charm to each room. The property features...
