This magnificent furnished property stands out for its spaciousness, natural light and excellent layout.

It is an ideal home for those seeking comfort, generous living spaces and privileged views in an urban setting by the sea. The property features a pleasant terrace from which to enjoy spectacular views of the sea, the Cathedral and the harbour, making it one of the property's main highlights. Its natural light creates a welcoming and pleasant atmosphere, with a unique visual connection to the surrounding landscape. Inside, the layout combines functionality and comfort. The property offers a spacious living room, perfect for creating separate areas for relaxing and entertaining, as well as a separate kitchen that adds practicality and keeps everyday living spaces distinct. The sleeping area includes a main bedroom with an en-suite bathroom, providing greater privacy and comfort. In addition, the property has a second bathroom with a shower, offering a particularly practical layout for everyday living and welcoming guests. The building offers concierge service and a dedicated bicycle parking area, adding further value to the property. Its proximity to a park also provides access to green spaces and open areas, enhancing the appeal of the...
