This recently renovated ground-floor apartment, refurbished with great taste, is located just a few steps from La Rambla, right in the centre of Palma.

Despite its central location, it is situated in a quiet and pleasant environment. The property features two bedrooms and a spacious living-dining room. Thanks to its dual orientation, it offers views of a charming terrace. Elegant and quiet ground-floor apartment in Palma's old town This cosy apartment, carefully renovated, is located a short distance from La Rambla, in the sought-after neighbourhood of La Missió. Although it is in the heart of the city, the surroundings are residential and peaceful, offering privacy and calm. The interior has been redesigned by an interior designer, combining traditional Mallorcan elements with a contemporary style. Notable features include solid oak floors with brass details, soft tones and carefully selected furniture, creating a home ready to move into. The layout includes a main bedroom with an en-suite bathroom and shower, as well as a second versatile room that can be used as an office, dressing room or occasional guest room. The open-plan living and dining room has dual orientation and views of a pleasant private terrace located on the ground...
