Located in Plaza España, one of Palma's most established and central areas, this apartment stands out for its generous proportions, practical layout and the potential it offers to create a home adapted to the lifestyle and needs of its new owner. The property features three bedrooms, one bathroom and a guest toilet, together with a parking space and storage room, two highly valued features in such a central location. It also includes built-in wardrobes, providing practical storage and functionality for everyday living. With a classic character and originally built in 1940, the property offers an excellent foundation for updating its interiors and creating a contemporary residential project while preserving the distinctive character and personality of a period property. Its layout allows for different renovation possibilities and can be adapted to suit the requirements of its future owners. Its location around Plaza España provides access to a wide range of shops, services, restaurants and public transport, as well as convenient connections to the main areas of Palma. It is an especially practical setting for those looking to live in the heart of the city with everything they need just a few minutes away. A property offering potential, a well-planned layout, parking and a storage room, ideal for those looking to update a home and transform it into a personalised...
