On Calle del Carme, right next to La Rambla, this rental apartment offers space and comfort in the very center of Palma.

Featuring four bedrooms, three bathrooms, and a parking space, it is an ideal option for those who wish to enjoy the city on foot without sacrificing a spacious home. It will be available starting in November 2026 and is rented unfurnished, allowing you to adapt it to your personal style. The living-dining room boasts large windows that provide abundant natural light and clearly distinguish the living and dining areas. The independent kitchen features numerous cabinets, ample countertop space, and room for a breakfast nook, alongside a separate laundry area. Built-in wardrobes make organization effortless, while the four bedrooms provide the flexibility to use one room as a home office. The furniture shown in the videos is not included in the rental. Its location next to La Rambla invites you to incorporate leisurely strolls through the center, local shops, and Palma's rich cultural and dining scene into your daily routine. Having a designated parking space adds a high level of convenience for combining walking around the city with driving. At €3,300 per month, this residence brings together a prime central location and the...
