Price

980,000 €

In this beautiful street of Palma, we find a building that forms part of the perimeter of the main square, therefore the house that we are describing is a property that has views to the main square and to the back to San Miguel and Rubí street, it is a very cheerful house and has large windows. The house itself has a surface area of approximately 150 square metres which is divided as follows: three bedrooms, living room, kitchen and bathroom. The property is in good condition, but would need some renovation to bring it up to date and give it the comfort that such a location deserves. It has neither lift nor garage.
