Discover this stunning southwest facing Mediterranean villa, offering views over the golf course, the majestic Bellver Castle and partially to the sea.

Located in SON VIDA, the most exclusive residential area of Palma and Mallorca, this property has been recently refurbished and equipped with solar panels, using only the best materials, making it a dream come true for the most discerning buyers. With a private plot of more than 1.850 sqm, the villa comes with several parking spaces and a spacious closed garage with space for two large cars. Its generous constructed area of approximately 537 sqm is distributed over three floors. On the first floor, you will be greeted by a bright day area with a spacious living room, fireplace and access to a splendid terrace offering spectacular views to the golf, the mountains and the sea. This floor also includes a dining room open to the kitchen, a guest toilet and a study or office. The natural stone flooring creates a harmonious connection with the outside. Descending the stairs, you will reach the lower floor, where you will find three exterior bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms; the master suite has a dressing room, shower and bathtub, complemented by parquet flooring. Continuing on, you will discover an...
