This fantastic country house built more than a century ago and tastefully renovated and extended in the countryside, on the outskirts of the charming village of Lloret de Vistalegre, offers 800 sqm constructed area on a plot of about 12,000 sqm. The house is distributed in basement, ground floor and upperfloor. From the main porch there is access to an independent kitchen with a barbecue and an old wood oven, a splendid table to get together with family or friends without entering the main house. The main entrance on the ground floor leads to a hall with a beautiful and elegant staircase that connects with the upper floor: each step is made with a whole piece of Binissalem stone and a wrought iron banister; there is also a living-dining room, a separate kitchen with access to a porch, two communicating bedrooms and a spacious bathroom. On the upper floor there is a bedroom with an enormous bathroom with shower and bathtub and access to a private terrace, and a hall that leads to another four bedrooms with terrace and two bathrooms, one with shower and the other with bathtub. The property has terraces, swimming pool of 17x8 metres, fruit trees, own well and cistern which is used for irrigation, as well as the connection to the municipal mains, connection to the sewage system, central heating with gasoil with a tank of 1. 500 litres, air conditioning, fitted and lined wardrobes, wooden beams,...
