aProperties presents a magnificent home designed by the prestigious architect Manuel de las Casas in Pozuelo de Alarcón.

The spacious interiors of 1,000 m<sup>2</sup> are distributed over three floors, with a unique design that allows the different spaces to flow naturally into each other and enjoy the views and access to the outdoor garden, terraces and the fantastic pool. Entering through the front door we find a large porch, the central axis of the distribution of the house, from there, on the left hand side, we access the living and dining room, kitchen and access to both the upper floor and the basement. Also, on the right hand side, the living room, office and guest suite. On the second floor, we find the exceptional master bedroom with en suite bathroom and terrace of approx. 50 m<sup>2</sup>. Three bedrooms, one of them with bathroom en suite and the other two share a double bathroom. In the basement, with access from the kitchen, is the laundry and ironing area, and a study for the service. It also has a multipurpose room, a gym area and a discotheque. The main garden is accessible both from the side paths of the house and from any of its doors to the outside. The summer facilities, which include the swimming pool, porch, storage room and showers.
